REPORT OF THE SELECTMEN.

Fellow Citizens: —

Herewith we submit our annual report of the receipts, expenditures, and other matters of general interest. The condition of the town the past year has been prosperous and satisfactory. Vacant houses have been taken up and occupied, and the increase of inhabitants by persons moving from other places has been limited only by the number of houses to be obtained.

New industries have been established during the past year, and others will be the coming season.

The natural beauties and advantages of the town, both as a place of residence and for the location of manufactories, are becoming appreciated, and we may look in the future to a large increase of population from both these sources.

HIGHWAYS.

The appropriations for the preceding financial years having proved insufficient to put and keep the streets and sidewalks in good condition, as stated by the last Board of Selectmen, a large number of unpaid bills were left over to be paid the present year, and very much needed to be done. The comparatively liberal appropriation of the past financial year has enabled us to do much towards putting the roads in excellent condition. It may well be doubted, however, whether the present system of keeping up our roads affords the best or most economical results.

Road making is an art as well as any mechanical business, and the permanently employ of a competent man by the town to direct and supervise the making and repairs of all the roads, responsible to the Selectmen, would doubtless prove a marked step in advance of the present system.

The Board some time since called the attention of the New York & New England Railroad Company to the necessity of gates at the grade crossing on Fairmount avenue, and the corporation agreed to put them up; so far this has not been done, but it is understood that the matter is progressing, and that the gates will be in position at an early date.

POLICE.

The liberal appropriation by the town for police purposes has enabled the Board to provide an ample force to preserve good order, and all needed protection. One approved and experienced officer has been constantly employed as a night patrol; a second for duty from noon to midnight, and a third for Sunday duty. These with the force of special police and constables, serving without pay unless assigned to special duty, have proved quite sufficient, and the cost has been moderate.

The strong vote of the town in regard to the matter of liquor licenses and the illegal sale of liquor decided the board to grant no licenses and to use the most energetic efforts for the suppression of tippling shops.

Instructions were given the police to notify all persons so engaged, of this decision of the selectmen, and to discontinue any further sales of spirituous liquors.

After due notice thus given the most energetic and continuous efforts were made to suppress illegal sales, and it is believed with a very fair measure of success. The difficulties however of obtaining the proofs necessary for conviction have been increased by recent legislation.

Formerly the paraphernalia of a drinking shop — beer pumps, &c., — was in itself evidence, but, by the law allowing the sale of drinks containing not over 3 per cent. of alcohol, the fittings of a "saloon" are no longer evidence.

There are, however, no known open bars at present in the town, and while liquor is doubtless sold in secret places, as it probably always will be, it may be safely assumed that the illegal sale of liquor in this town has ceased to be profitable.

Particulars of arrests for various misdemeanors will be found in the report of the keeper of police records.

STREET LAMPS.

The streets are now lighted by the Globe Gas Light Company, of Boston. The service has been satisfactory, and considering the cost, the streets are generally well lighted. The company has looked after the lamps and the lighting of the same in a manner entitling it to much credit.

TOWN HALL.

The Town Hall Building during the year showing signs of weakness and settling, prompt measures were at once taken to remedy these defects, and the building has now been made perfectly safe. Beyond this no permanent improvements or changes have been made in the building; the proposed completion of the "third track" of the Boston & Providence Railroad the coming spring, and the probable changes of grade in Gordon avenue and River street at this point rendering anything further than provisions for safety unadvisable.

For a detailed report of the expenses and receipts of the Town Hall property, reference is made to the Treasurer's report.

The reports of the School Committee, Engineers of the Fire Department, Town Clerk, Town Treasurer, Tax Collector, Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, Trustees of the Public Library, Assessors, Overseers of Poor, Board of Health, and Keeper of Police Records will be found in their proper places.

HENRY C. STARK,
AMOS H. BRAINARD,
STEPHEN B. BALKAM,
Selectmen.

DANIEL O'CONNELL,

ENGINEERS' REPORT.

HYDE PARK, Jan. 31st, 1882.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:—

GENTLEMEN, —It is with much satisfaction that we lay before you our annual report for the year ending January 31st, 1882. In doing so we are happy to say, that the department is in excellent condition, and as for the gentlemanly deportment of its members and prompt response to every call, it is second to none in the Commonwealth. There has been a number of changes made in the department the past year, which in our estimation have been very much for the better.

By a vote of the town we have placed in the department a Babcock Chemical (two tank) Engine, each tank capable of holding fifty gallons, which has proved an excellent addition to the department. In the early stage of a fire, before we can get a stream of water on, or in saving property in the neighborhood of a fire, it has more than doubly paid for itself. At the fire on Railroad avenue, for instance, had it not been for the chemical, the fire would have reached Gunnison's stable before we could possible have got a stream of water on, and when once in there, no one knows where we should have been able to stop it.

We have now in the department about 4500 feet of hose, of which 2000 feet is cotton, and in excellent condition, the balance of 2500 feet is leather, and only about 600 feet of which is good, the balance being almost worthless. We have placed in the department 700 feet of cotton hose the past year, and would earnestly recommend the town to appropriate a sum of money for the purchase of hose this year.

We would recommend cotton hose in preference to any other. And we would impress it on your minds and also the citizens of Hyde Park, that our steamers are getting old, and will require much more repairing this year than on any previous year. In our judgment they will not last longer than this year, if they do that, without new boilers.

We have also in the department two steamers, two hose carriages, one hook and ladder carriage, one chemical engine, one fuel wagon, two setts of swinging harnesses, all in good repair, and hose as above described. We take this opportunity to heartily thank each and every member of the department for their gentlemanly conduct and hearty co-operation in making any change, that is for the benefit of the department.

You will find with this report a list of alarms and fires, also the officers and number of men belonging to each company.

Respectfully submitted,

WARREN W. HILTON,
Chief Engineer.

C. L. FARNSWORRH,
F. A. SWEET,
Assistant Engineers.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Board of Health herewith present their report for the year ending February 1, 1882. The duties devolving upon this board the past year have been numerous and important. An unusually large number of complaints regarding the sanitary condition of different portions of our town have been received and acted upon. In a large number of these complaints the remedy sought was the removal of a hog pen, or the cleaning of a vault or cess-pool. These complaints have received our attention, and in nearly every instance our demands upon the owner of these alleged nuisances have resulted in their abatement without cost to the town. The condition of a pond-hole near the junction of River and West streets, was brought to our notice by the petition of the residents of that locality, and the filling and draining there done at our direction, will undoubtedly remove all further cause for complaint. This has been effected by the expenditure of $127.50.

SMALL POX.

As the action of this board with reference to the manner of our dealings with the small-pox cases has been freely and publicly commented upon, we deem it but just to ourselves to here state the facts relating to these cases, so that our citizens may judge whether this board has performed the duties devolving upon it in a manner to be commended, or otherwise.

On the evening of Sunday, October 9, last, this board was notified that Harry Teed, then living with Isaac Woods, in a room in rear of the store then occupied by Mr. Bass, in Everett Square, was sick with the small-pox. A meeting of this board was held the same evening, when it was determined to fit up one of the "barracks" in Happy Valley, and remove both Teed and Woods thereto. As the patient had no settlement in our town, but was chargeable to the State, we notified the State Board of Health, Lunacy and Charity of this case, and Monday, October 10, at noon,

Dr. Cummings, in the interest of said State board, came here and, on investigation, recommended us to allow the patient to remain where he was, assuring us that no danger of the spread of the disease would result therefrom. An officer was thereupon stationed near by to prevent anyone from entering said building, or the inmates from coming out. Owing to the excitement caused by the presence of this patient in a building so near the stores in the Square, we made arrangements with responsible parties for his removal to Happy Valley on Tuesday night, October 11. The scene of excitement was now transferred to Readville, and raged to such a degree that the parties who were to remove the patient, refused to carry out their contract from fear of the threatened violence. We then (October 12) caused the hasty construction of a small building, (afterwards known as the pest house) in the edge of "Muddy Pond" woods and about 1,000 feet from any other building; and into this building, both Teed and Woods were removed Wednesday night. As an example of the opposition with which we had to contend, we state that no team could be hired by us for this removal, and we were obliged to purchase a vehicle for this service; that we were continually threatened with violence if we persisted in removing these men to the pest house; that the pest house was fired several times after the patients had been placed therein; and that it was with great effort that the officers prevented the people from carrying out their designs. Woods became sick October 12, and both he and Teed remained in this building until their recovery, guarded from without, night and day, by officers, from the violence of certain citizens. On October 24, Alice Wilmot, a relative of Teed, who visited him the day before his disease was known to be small-pox, became sick and was removed to the pest house where she died, November 1st. We endeavored to make these unfortunates as comfortable as possible, and their statements assured us that they were well attended.

When it became evident that the disease was to spread no farther, and the threats to burn the building had not abated, we notified the Selectmen and engineers of our intention to remove the guard and to burn the building, and thus save the town the expense attending a calling out of the fire department. The building was fired, by our order, December 14.

The expense attending these three cases was $1,374.74, and the expenditure of more than $200 of this amount was made necessary by the unreasonable action and demonstrations of some of our own citizens. A portion of this expense will be repaid by the State.

On January 20, Mr. Young, boarding with a family on Mount Neponset, became sick with varioloid. We caused a red flag to be displayed, and employed a competent nurse for him, allowing the patient to remain at his home. He has now recovered. The expense attending this case has been paid by Mr. Young.

Respectfully submitted,

R. P. MOSELEY,
JOEL F. GOODWIN,
EDWARD McKENNA,
Board of Health.

During the year ending February 1, 1882, we have rendered aid to one hundred and seventy persons. Of this number, six are insane paupers fully supported by this town; three are sane paupers and receive full support, and one hundred and sixty-one have been aided more or less as their necessities require.

Twenty-seven (including the six insane) of the one hundred and seventy persons aided have a settlement in our town and for their support this town alone is responsible. One hundred and thirty-seven have no settlement in this town, and of this last number, one hundred and sixteen are chargeable to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and twenty-one to other cities and towns in said Commonwealth.

THE TENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

HYDE PARK LIBRARY BOARD.

In presenting this report, it will be necessary to go more into detail than usual, for we had a larger appropriation, and have done much more work than in past years. We, as custodians, wish to have all our work and actions known and criticised, approved or condemned, according to their merit.

In the last report, we gave particulars in regard to the Catalogue. The manuscript was in the hands of the printer, and for the amount of work done, progress had been quite satisfactory. But in a note at the bottom of the page it was stated that the printing establishment was burned with some damage to the work already done, which fact was learned after the report was written. It was with a feeling of real sorrow that we then realized that the postponement of the much needed, and wished for Catalogue was inevitable. Some time elapsed before the firm affected a settlement with the insurance companies. But they assured us many times that the work should be put through at once, even at a loss to them. After the contract for printing was made and just before the fire, the firm was dissolved, the retiring member being the one with whom the contract had been made. We felt as though he wished to do everything he could, and certainly made many promises that there should be no delay in the work, if in any way he could prevent it. At the same time no perceptible progress was made. We learned that there was some unpleasant feeling among the members of the late firm, and also against the board in the new firm, For these reasons it was necessary to get nearer the parties we had to do with. A committee of one was appointed by the board to carry the job through at a stated time and cost, he first assuring, and then convincing, a majority of his ability to do so, and it certainly would have been done but for the extra work that was added. The earnestness, labor and money he put into the work was commendable, and appreciated by every member of the board. The Catalogue was at last ready for distribution, and so far as we know it has been very satisfactory.

Several improvements and additions have been made during the year, for the comfort and convenience of the patrons, who appreciate its privileges more and more as time passes.

The library is outgrowing the rooms which it occupies, and at the expiration of the lease some change will be necessary, and we trust that its growth in usefulness has exceeded its growth in number of books upon its shelves, so that no person should say aught against providing a suitable building for its needed wants.

New books have been added to the library, and nearly all have been placed on the shelves and are in circulation, It is only necessary to compare the statistics of this, with the last report to see its healthy growth and condition.

Books and publications have been presented during the year as follows :—

John A. Boyle	40 books and pamphlets

And at a meeting held April 10th, 1877, by adjournment of the above-mentioned meeting, it was voted to adopt the following

BY-LAWS IN RELATION TO THE PREVENTION OF FIRES, TO WIT:

It shall be the duty of every person who shall commence the erection of any building within the town of Hyde Park to notify the Board of Engineers thereof before he shall commence building the chimneys therein.

All chimneys in wooden buildings shall be built of brick, stone, or other fire-proof non-conducting material. All brick flues shall be smoothly plastered inside with mortar from top to bottom and outside below the roofing.

In no case shall chimneys rest upon any flooring without a footing of masonry or iron supported by iron beams, having a secure bearing of masonry or iron at either end.

All flues shall be topped out at least four feet above the roof of the building to which they belong. The brick topping out of chimneys shall not have more than two inches projection, unless covered by a cap of metal or stone properly secured.

Hearths of fireplaces or grates shall be laid upon brick or other trimmer arches, or upon bars of iron supporting a bed of brick-work.

No wood-work of any kind shall be placed at a less distance than one inch from the outside brick-work of any flue. In no case shall a nail be driven into the masonry of any flue.

No wood-work shall be placed at a less distance than one inch from any tin or other metal flue or flues, pipe or pipes, used or intended to be used to convey heated air or steam in any building, unless such flues or pipes shall be cased with metal, leaving a free circulation of air all around the same.

No smoke-pipe in any such wooden or frame building shall hereafter enter any flue, unless the said pipe shall be at least twelve inches from either the floors or ceiling; and in all cases where smoke-pipes pass through stud or wooden partitions of any kind, whether the same be plastered or not, they shall be guarded by either a double collar of metal, with at least four inches of air space and holes for ventilation or by a soap-stone ring, not less than three inches in thickness and extending through the partition.

The Board of Engineers shall examine into all shops and other places where shavings or other combustible material may be deposited or collected, and at all times be vigilant in the removal of the same, whenever, in the opinion of any majority of them, the same may be dangerous to the security of the town from fires; and direct the owner, tenant, or occupant of said shops, or other places, to remove the same; and in case such owner, tenant, or occupant's refusal or neglect so to do, to cause the same to be removed at the expense of such owner, tenant, or occupant.

It shall also be the duty of said Engineers to take cognizance of all buildings in the town in which any steam engine shall be used, and of all buildings in the town in process of erection or alteration, and to make a record of such thereof as in their judgment may from any cause be dangerous, and report the same to the Selectmen forthwith. And whenever in the opinion of a majority of the Board of Engineers, any chimney. hearth, oven, stove, stovepipe, fire-frame or other fixture, or any camphene or other explosive or inflammable fluid or material, or whatever else may give just cause of alarm, should be altered, repaired or removed, they, the said Engineers, shall forthwith notify and direct the owner, tenant or occupant of the premises upon which the same are situated, to alter, repair, or remove the same, as the said Engineers shall direct. And in case such tenant, owner or occupant shall refuse or neglect so to do, the said Engineers shall cause the same to be removed, altered or repaired at the expense of such owner, tenant, or occupant, who shall also be liable to a penalty, not exceeding fifty dollars for such neglect or refusal. And any person who shall obstruct the Engineers, or any of them, in carrying out the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars.

The removal, extension or essential alteration of any building; also, the rebuilding or repairing of any building which has been partially destroyed by fire, shall be subject to the same restrictions which are imposed by the foregoing By-laws on the erection of buildings.

PENALTIES UNDER THE BY-LAWS.

Every violation of any of the foregoing By-laws shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, to be recovered by a complaint before any trial justice in the county of Norfolk or any other court having jurisdiction.

PROSECUTION UNDER THE BY-LAWS.

Any citizen may, and the Board of Engineers and constables, shall, after five days notice in writing to the violator thereof, which notice shall contain a definite statement of the matter complained of, prosecute every violation of any of the foregoing By-laws, by complaint before any trial justice in the county of Norfolk or any other court.

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

For School Year Ending December 31, 1881.

To the Citizens of Hyde Park:—

The following report is respectfully submitted by the School Committee of the town.

At the first meeting of the year Sub-Committees were appointed and approved, viz:—

H. H. Smith, Edmund Davis, Andrew Washburn, High School; E. I. Humphrey, Edmund Davis, Andrew Washburn, Advanced Grammar School; E. I. Humphrey, Evening Schools; Andrew Washburn, H. S. Bunton, Fairmount School; Edmund Davis, H. H. Smith, Damon School; H. S. Bunton, C. G. Chick, Greenwood School; C. G. Chick. E. I. Humphrey, Grew School; E. I. Humphrey, Everett Primary School.

Attention is called to reports from each of the above Sub-Committees; also to the report of Dr. Dennett hereto appended.

FINANCIALLY

Your Committee found themselves perplexed at the very outset. After careful estimates, a certain sum was fixed upon as necessary to carry the schools through the year. This sum the town voted; but added also another vote, that a fence should be placed around the Greenwood School house. To carry out this vote has cost about seven hundred dollars; and, as a result, we have quite a number of bills now due, which must await the next appropriation for incidental expenses.

EXPENSE REPORTS.

Considerable time and labor have been given, by a committee, consisting of Messrs. Chick and Bunton, to prepare, in detail, a report of the incidental expenses for each school, that the town may understand fully just where the money appropriated is expended.

It will be noticed that certain expenses cannot be divided, but must be charged to the schools as a whole.

DISTRICT LINES

Are giving much trouble. In the location of the school houses, the Grew building is much more central than the others, and, as a result, is constantly crowded. Parents and guardians resist having their children sent to other schools at a greater distance; and the result is constant irritation. Every room in the Grew building is now occupied, and filled to overflowing; and, unless the town will provide some further rooms, the district lines will have to be drawn a little nearer to the Grew building, and a larger number be thrown into the outlying districts.

VOCAL MUSIC.

Mr. H. J. Whittemore has given weekly lessons in each school through the year, and has oversight of the practice in this department. His efforts have been generally successful. New text and practice books have been adopted in this branch, recently, and still better results may be expected in the future.

DR. DENNETT'S REPORT

Gives but a part of the work actually performed, in connection with his examinations. The valuable advice given, the questions answered, the prescriptions, etc., are not a matter of record.

EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS.

We append a table of Educational Statistics including expenditures, attendance, relative standing of Hyde Park in educational matters, as compared with other towns of the State, and other valuable items of information for the entire period since the town was incorporated. This table will be found interesting and perhaps useful for future reference.

ORAL EXAMINATIONS

At the end of the school year, have been largely substituted for the former exhibitions. These exhibitions were almost entirely foreign to the regular school work, and gave parents and friends attending them, little or no opportunity to judge of the work of the year, while the examination is entirely upon the subjects covered by the school work.

GROWTH IN TEACHERS

Is necessary to the highest success. A teacher must obtain intellectual daily bread, as well as give it. The enthusiasm of new ideas, and new attainments, will kindle an enthusiasm in pupils. Let a teacher strive to be distinguished in some branch of science, or art, and though it may be a branch never taught directly in the school-room, other branches will be taught the better for it. And again, and with still greater emphasis, it will keep the hard lines from gathering about the mouth, and preserve the sweetness and sympathy, without which, let no one presume to stand as teacher in the presence of the young.

HEALTH

In Swiss schools, pupils spend one-fifth of their time in physicial exercises, the diseased and feeble still more. Our schools ought to be sanitariums, and our teachers so skilled in hygiene that children shall be sent to school because they are weak, as well as because they are ignorant, and because they need physical culture, as well as because they need intellectual culture. The family physician ought to find in the teacher his most valuable co-worker and aid.

Without doubt, about one-half of the time spent in the school room is worse than wasted. That is, with one-half of the time now spent in the school room, better intellectual and physicial results could be obtained, than at present. Still, there seems no remedy at present. We cannot shorten the number of school years and so reach the result desired. Growth is essential; and, for this, time is necessary. A five year child cannot think a ten year thought. Again, we cannot well shorten the daily school hours; for, in cities and large villages, children have no employment out of school, and would be thrown into the streets, to absorb every kind of evil. The children of Hyde Park, in common with many others, await, wearily, the advent of some wise philanthropist, who shall contrive and provide safe, healthful, pleasant and instructive, out of door amusements for the younger pupils of our schools, and for the older pupils, healthful, regular, and useful, out of door employment.

In behalf of the Committee,

ANDREW WASHBURN,

Chairman.

HIGH SCHOOL.

Mr. John F. Elliot, Principal.

Miss Mary M. Coleman, Miss Minnie C. Clark, Assistants.

The High School has been favored, during the past year, with the same corps of efficient teachers as it had the year before. This fact is worthy of mention, because it is creditable alike to scholars and to teachers. The discipline of the school has been excellent; the training, careful and vigilant; and the instruction, full and accurate.

The scholars are impressed with the truth, that their education consists not only in thoroughly mastering the lessons of the text-books, but also in restraining evil tendencies, and in developing, day by day, the best powers and capabilities of body, mind and heart.

By means of the joint and harmonious action of the Selectmen, the Fire Department and the School Committee, a cistern, with the capacity of about forty thousand gallons, has been constructed on the school grounds. This cistern will furnish an abundant supply of pure water to the scholars of the High School, of the Advanced Grammar Class, and of the little Everett; and it will also prove to be an invaluable aid to the Fire Department in promptly extinguishing any fire that may break out in Everett square and vicinity.

It is recommended that, during the vacation of the coming summer, a face-wall, similar to that on Hyde Park avenue, be built along the school grounds fronting on Everett street, and all the repairs the school building actually needs be fully completed.

The High School is meriting and is winning golden opinions. It should never fail to receive unwavering support and patronage.

ADVANCED GRAMMAR CLASS.

Miss Estelle M. Hatch, Teacher.

This class has passed its experimental year, and is well advanced in its first year of established success. Its creation was not effected to satisfy the caprice of the committee, but to fertilize a barren interval lying between the Grammar and High Schools. We were strongly fortified in our action, by the citizens of the town very numerously petitioning us to provide for the then existing need. Many possible solutions of the problem suggested themselves, and the most feasible method seemed to be the one adopted. One very natural and desirable plan, was to give to each master in the Grammar Schools an additional class; but here we were confronted with two grave obstacles, first, the confusion which arises from many classes in the same room, and secondly, the positive necessity of assistant teachers in the masters' rooms. This last obstacle was a very vital one, viz:—four salaried teachers to shock the financial nerve of the community. The present class groups what would have been four classes under the method just cited, and places it under one teacher. Now, aside from economic reasons, there is one palpable benefit derived, which is the undivided and concentrated attention of teacher and scholars to one line of teaching and study. This class was established to supplement the work of the Grammar Schools; to the end, that the High School might receive scholars better equipped for the work it provides. Another plan which was fully considered, was to attach a class to the High School as a preparatory class. The objections to this were two fold: first, the present corps of teachers was fully employed; second, it would have intensified an adverse criticism, already strong that the standard of admission to the High School was too low. In general, we have received the cordial support of our towns-people in our action. A few, faint, ill-defined murmurings, have reached us with reference to our impairing the dignity of the other schools, and the undesirability of having a female succeed a male teacher.

To the first complaint we simply give denial, plain, clear and emphatic; no such thought has ever insinuated itself into our minds, neither has it been invoked. We shall endeavor in the future, as in the past, to give to every grade proper attention and respect, and shall hope in return for the heartiest co-operation on the part of the teachers and scholars in the several schools. The word should constantly be, go forward; through all the grades, Primary, Grammar and High, even to collegiate attainment if possible.

To the complaint with reference to females succeeding male teachers, we have only to say that this is an old method, as pupils have always passed from the master's room to the immediate care of female assistants in the High School. We hold male and female teachers to be the peers of each other save in two respects, viz: muscular and financial; the last is the saving cause of our biased action. The preceding explanation would not have been entered into so fully, if we did not know that this class is an innovation on the system of the past. Miss Estelle M. Hatch continues in charge of this class with marked success; her efforts have been untiring and have been prolific of good results.

DAMON SCHOOL.

Edward W. Cross, Master.

Lizzie D. Bunker, Julia E. Donovan, Sarah A. Crosby, Margaret E. Bertram, Maria V. Rooney (from September 27, 1881,) Alice B. White (to October 1, 1881,) Mary E. Bowen (to June 24, 1881;) Ellen Clifford (from October 1 to December 23, 1881,) Teachers.

Of the teachers named in the above roster, Miss White was transferred, at her request, to the Greenwood school; Miss Clifford succeeding her in charge of Class XI., and ending her connection with it, and with the school, at the beginning of the Christmas vacation; Miss Bowen had one of the divisions of Class XII., and retired when both divisions were consolidated under Miss Bertram; when subdivision of that class again became necessary, Miss Rooney was selected to teach the second division. The whole of Class XII. is now under the charge of Miss Rooney, and Class XI. under Miss Bertram. The other teachers have been in charge of the same classes as during several years past.

The school has, as a whole, given more than usual satisfaction to the Committee during the year just ended. We have observed with pleasure increased efforts on the part of teachers to care for the interests and well-being of their pupils, physically as well as intellectually, in a most thorough and intelligent manner. Apparently, the scholars have responded to this with a far greater application to study, and a more prompt and universal obedience to discipline, than ever before. As a consequence, we find, what we should naturally expect to find, much greater proficiency in their lessons and advancement in knowledge. Therefore, we congratulate the present teachers, and the scholars, of the Damon school, on their past year; and we are glad to know that our favorable judgment is heartily seconded by the parents of the attending children. It gives us the more gratification to be able to conscientiously say this, because in the past we have felt compelled at times, to be somewhat censorious. Of our opinion of our teachers, it is enough to say that their retention in their respective places is the best evidence of our satisfaction with, and confidence in them.

The results of the examinations, both oral and written, were, for the most part, quite favorable; and it will not be thought invidious for us to note that the average mark of the graduates of the fifth class last summer was higher than that of the same class in any other school.

Considering our report to be supplemental to the general report, we pass over without comment those features which are common to all the schools, such as the very evident improvement resulting from the changes in the course of study, and the adoption of new text books, made in 1880, the good results of substituting an annual oral examination for the mimic theatricals formerly given under the name of "exhibitions"; etc. And we can notice, simply, without attempting to particularize, the use and practice of many devices to stimulate the interest of the scholars, and invest the pursuit of knowledge with the charm of novelty. We always observe such efforts of teachers with feelings of sympathy and approbation, modified, only, by the reflection that the hours of school-time are few, and that constant care is needed lest pursuits, in themselves harmless, or even desirable, trench upon the time absolutely required for the acquisition of solid knowledge. But all systems and methods of instruction are, as yet, experimental, and a tentative disposition in a teacher is a very commendable quality.

The rate of attendance in this school has been considerably below the average, the past year. This is, in some degree, owing to the prevalence of "mumps" among the scholars last fall, to such an extent that, at one time, more than eighty were sick. The absence of all attacked, or threatened with the disease was enforced by the Committee, in accordance with medical advice, until such scholars should bring from a physician a certificate of their safe sanitary condition, (such certificate being provided without cost to the scholar.) This course was adopted to prevent further spread of the disease among the scholars in this, and the other schools, and appears to have been effective. The rate of attendance is, also, greatly affected by many scholars staying out to work in the mills, as long as the law allows, and then resuming attendance for such length of time as will qualify them for another period of absence.

The condition of the buildings and rooms, with all their appointments, is good. True economy would dictate the putting of one coat of paint over the outside of the buildings next summer, but this can, and, probably, will have to be postponed. The walls and ceilings of the class-rooms ought to be whitened, as well for sanitary, as for ornamental reasons. Considerable improvements have been made in the cellar, such as the construction of coal-bin, ash-sifter, and a receptacle for ashes, hardening of the floor, etc., with very gratifying results, in freedom from dust throughout the building, greater purity of air, and general cleanliness.

Of the amount set down in the statistics subjoined to this report, as expended for incidentals for this school, is included the sum of $144.50 paid for books supplied to indigent scholars. The amount so paid in all the other schools aggregates only $28.49. By statute it is obligatory on the Committee to so supply books. Deducting the above sum, we find the net amount here expended for ordinary incidentals to be only $185.68. The smallness of this expenditure, as compared with that of the other grammar schools, is doubtless, owing, in a great measure, to the thoroughness of the repairs made in and around the building two years ago.

In the Damon building there is one, and, a part of the time, another room unused. If some means could be provided for the safe transit of the children living south of Mother Brook and between the two railroads, so that all of them could be sent here, it would relieve the over-crowded Grew building, and result to the benefit of both scholars and teachers.

We have been obliged to, reluctantly, dispense with the services of Mr. Clapp, for a long time the efficient janitor of the Damon. Mr. Bond, his successor, promises to be an equally meritorious custodian.

FAIRMOUNT SCHOOL.

Master.—Henry F. Howard.

Teachers.—Annie L. Howe, Ella J. Stocking, Hattie M. H. Darling, Jennie S. Hammond, Helen A. Perry, Hattie E. Adams, since October, 1881.

Your Committee are glad to report the Fairmount School still enjoying the general confidence and regard of the community, and in it a steady growth both in numbers and character.

The teachers appointed last year are doing excellent work; and their present success not only justifies the selections made by the Committee, but illustrated the value of experience in actual teaching, as a requisite of entirely satisfactory results.

The prosperity of the town and consequent increase in the number of pupils made it necessary, at the commencement of the Fall Term, to separate the VII. and VIII. Classes, and to employ an additional teacher. As there was but one teacher in the building, not a resident of Hyde Park, and as some variety of education and experience is desirable, it was decided to employ a teacher from abroad, and Miss Hattie E. Adams was selected. Miss Adams had been educated principally in Lexington, the seat of the first Normal School in America, and showed a very successful experience as a teacher, for some years, in that vicinity. The selection has proved thus far very satisfactory.

In the general management of the school, a constant visitor would notice, and approve the following new features. Great attention is paid to uniformity of temperature; and a record is kept by Mr. Howard, the Principal, of the readings of all the thermometers in the building, for each school season.

The cold air for the furnaces is now taken from outside, instead of from the basement, as heretofore; thus securing greater purity and healthfulness.

Particular care is taken of the younger scholars, to guard them against draughts, to remove rubbers or other overshoes while in the school room, and to have the pupils properly wrapped for out-door exercise.

Excellent use is made of the Supplementary Readers supplied by the Committee. They are greatly enjoyed by the pupils, and their use has secured greater facility of utterance, and greater naturalness of expression.

In Mr. Howard's room, the V. and VI. Classes have been much interested in selecting, and bringing to the desk, short extracts from the daily newspapers, of important items of financial, or historical interest. A few moments each week is devoted to reading these extracts, and to remarks upon them. In this way an interest is awakened to observe the history of the present, and the pupils are instructed in what every American citizen needs to know.

The Composition Books, now furnished each pupil, and in which a permanent record is kept of each effort, are creating greater interest and more care and exactness in the use of written language.

The letter writing on slates, by the lower classes, deserves special commendation. It is greatly enjoyed by the pupils, and some excellent specimens have been offered.

Light gymnastic exercises are performed daily in all the classes. And it is worthy of remark that, at the close of the long session, a marked change was noticeable in favor of those classes which entered, with energy, into these physical exercises.

In this connection, we are glad to mention that at the close of the school year, the parents and friends present at the examination chose a committee consisting of Messrs. W. F. Ward, H. F. Howard, and A. Washburn, who should undertake to furnish gymnasium facilities for the pupils of the school. This committee has secured already, and expended for the purpose indicated, about one hundred dollars; and is now endeavoring to fit up as a gymnasium, and play-room for the girls, and younger boys, the excellent basement of the school building. The advantage of such a place for recreation, in cold or stormy weather, can hardly be overrated.

Very successful public exercises were held, at the close of the Fall Term, consisting of studies, and recitations, in various forms, from the lives and works of several eminent American poets. The result showed a successful effort to awaken an interest in good literature; and so to prevent the too frequent waste, or worse than waste, of time of youth upon useless or harmful reading. We trust the zeal shown by the upper classes of the school in this work will not abate.

As an incentive to prompt and regular attendance, and good order in filing, banners have been prepared, and one is placed, for the week, upon the door of the room of the class standing first, in either of these particulars, for the preceding week. Increased punctuality and a marked improvement in the filing has been effected; and the method has proved a very pleasant and satisfactory one.

To the excellent corps of teachers of the Fairmount school the gratitude of parents, and the thanks of the Committee are due, for their kindly, patient, persistent labors in behalf of the pupils entrusted to their care.

GREENWOOD SCHOOL.

J. Langdon Curtis, Master.

Harriet J. Folsom, Agnes L. Adams, Alice E. Gage, Ellen M. Farnsworth, Alice B. White, Teachers.

The present satisfactory condition of the school attests the faithfulness and efficiency of its corps of instructors, the high standard of the past having been well maintained during the year which is now closing.

The substitution of an oral examination for the annual exhibition, has proved a salutary innovation on the usage of former years, and has given to those who seldom or never visit the school, except on public occasions, the opportunity to pass judgment on the methods employed and work accomplished.

The increasing number of primary scholars necessitated the opening of a new room during the fall term. The supply of second-hand school furniture belonging to the town was found to be exhausted, and the limited amount of funds at our disposal admonished us to be prudent in the matter of expenditure. With some painstaking, we succeeded in procuring furniture at a modest cost, and in fitting up the room neatly, though very economically. Under the new arrangement, the primary classes were placed, respectively, under the charge of the following teachers:—Class X., Miss Gage; Class XI., Miss Farnsworth; Class XII., Miss Alice B. White, who was transferred from the Damon school, where she had taught acceptably for several years.

In last year's report we suggested the propriety of suitably fencing and grading the school grounds, not anticipating that the seed thus sown, would speedily bring forth fruit. But the current year's appropriation for school incidentals, when voted by the town, was coupled with the condition that it should include the cost of such fencing. In accordance with which vote, the Board advertised for proposals, and in due time the contract was awarded to Mr. Charles Haley, who was the lowest bidder. The work was completed during the summer vacation, to the entire satisfaction of the sub-committee having charge of same, and has received the approval of the citizens of the district.

During the present winter, the heating apparatus has proved inadequate for the six rooms now in use. A large size Chilson furnace, in perfect order, having been offered us for about one-quarter the cost of the new castings, we have purchased it, and it is now being placed in position. With two large brick furnaces, our provision for heating will be ample for all future needs.

GREW SCHOOL.

Franklin H. Dean, Master.

Fannie J. Emerson, Lucina Dunbar, Mary Morey, Martha A. Alexander, Genevieve Brainard, Leila E. Perry, Florence E. Leadbeater, Teachers.

Again the time has arrived when by our custom we are required to report upon the condition of this school.

Perhaps it would be enough for us to say that, during the past year, the able teachers who have long had charge of the classes, have been continued in their respective positions. Deeming any change of teachers, without good cause, a misfortune; we have endeavored to maintain the same organization as long as possible. This, of itself, serves to increase the efficiency of each succeeding year's work.

The school is in good condition throughout. The scholars are, as a rule, prompt in attendance and recitation, and show much interest in their work. The tenth class in arithmetic, with the fifth and sixth classes in analysis and parsing, are to be especially commended for their zeal and proficiency.

In the lower grades, there has been more absence from sickness than last year, but the work has not been materially impaired. We were much gratified with the attendance of many of our citizens at the public examination held at the close of the last school year, and feel that, notwithstanding the fact of teachers and scholars being somewhat tired by their efforts, the result was of much benefit to all concerned.

The registers of the school show the number of scholars actually connected with the various classes, at the present time, to be considerably above four hundred. These scholars now occupy the eight rooms of the building, and as the number in each grade is not and cannot be made uniform, it follows that some rooms have more pupils than they can properly accommodate; this is especially true of the ninth class. Efforts have been made to relieve this room, by transferring a few scholars to the Fairmount school. In view of the crowded condition of this building, and the inconvenience of requiring any of these scholars to attend either of the other schools under existing circumstances, some action of the town tending to its relief is desirable.

This may be done by providing a safe way to the Damon or Fairmount schools, or by establishing a new school on Central Park avenue, beyond Messrs. Bleakie & Co.'s factory.

The building is in good repair, but the play-grounds, notwithstanding the expenditures of considerable sums of money thereon during the past two years, are not in the condition we could desire. The location and surface of this yard are such that without a large expenditure the evil must remain.

Your committee would gladly hail a special appropriation for the purpose of putting these grounds in proper condition.

EVERETT SCHOOL.

Miss Mary E. Rogers, Teacher.

The "little Everett" goes on its juvenile way much the same as in former years. Miss Rogers still guides the class kindly and successfully. Primary classes are entitled to, and ought to receive a full share of attention. Fathers and mothers should make the transit of their little ones from home teaching to school teaching, as free as possible from the shock of perceptible change.

Frequent visits and mutual effort with the teacher, will engraft the loving kindness of home upon the school.

EVENING SCHOOLS.

Sybel G. Brown (to April 1st, 1881,) Teacher; Sarah C. Brown (to April 1st, 1881,) Assistant Teacher.

Achsa M. Merrill (to April 1st, 1881,) F. H. Dean (from October 1st, 1881,) D. G. Thompson (from October 17, 1881,) Teachers; Mary E. Bowen (from October 17, 1881,) Achsa M. Merrill (from October 1st, 1881,) Assistant Teachers.

Evening schools in Hyde Park have not prospered as we would wish; although good teachers and excellent facilities have been provided. Schools have been established in the Damon and Grew buildings; the former, commencing Oct. 17, 1881, under the charge of Mr. D. G. Thompson, principal, and Miss Mary E. Bowen, assistant; the latter, commencing Oct. 3, 1881, under the charge of Mr. F. H. Dean, principal, and Mrs. A. M. Merrill, assistant. Both schools have run to the present time, and are still having a passably successful existence. We incline to the belief that the town will do well to make still further effort to establish evening schools. It is a prize worth winning, if even a few of those who are destined to be of our permanent population can be lifted to a higher intelligence. Proprietors of mills, and other employers, can do much to infuse an interest in the evening schools. Many employès would need but a timely word of encouragement to induce them to redeem their earlier neglected opportunity, or previously denied privilege. The present evening schools have quite a number of studious and earnest scholars; the principal existing trouble is irregular attendance.

DR. DENNETT'S REPORT.

ANDREW WASHBURN, ESQ., Chairman of the School Committee of Hyde Park:—

DEAR SIR,—Having looked over the records of this year's examination of the eyes of the scholars, and compared them with those of the previous examination, I beg leave to submit the following report:—

The method pursued was exactly the same as that previously adopted, but scholars who had been present before were only detained long enough to establish the fact that no material change had taken place.

Seventeen (17) of the scholars who were found last year to be far sighted appeared this year without any symptoms of that trouble and their names should be removed from the list that appeared as class one, in the printed report.

Their names are as follows:—

Frank Austin.	John Coonts.
Martha Hampson.	Robert Johnson.
Hildreth McFarland.	Milly Sturtevant.
Georgie Ray.	Cornelius Meade.
Jennie M. Brooks.	Eugene Clark.
Frank Dolan.	Annie Kendall.
Harry Stevens.	Tilly Strachan.
Lizzie Ray.	Edna Walker.

Helena Starr.

There are eighteen (18) names to be added to the list of the far sighted; most of these scholars were either absent or not connected with the school during the time when the first examination was in progress.

They are :—

Agnes Flemming.	Nettie Riley.
Edward Rooney.	Hattie Washburn.
Freddie Fogg.	Mary Duxbury.
Otto Pierce.	James O'Hearn.
Josephine Costello.	Robert Jackson.
George Sherman.	Grace F. Eustis.
Hannah Sheehan.	Harry Bickmore.
Edna Shaw.	Meona Dunn.
Georgia Starr.	Louis J. Whittemore.

Nine (9) who appeared to be somewhat near sighted last year are not so this.

They are :—

Nellie Sanborn.	Katie Sandeen.
Eddie Tripp.	Clara Rodgers.
Charles Harmon.	Charles Grant.

Jennie Eames.

Thirty-three (33) new cases of near sight were found this year.

They are :—

J. H. Lane.	Willine Morris.
Nellie Kingston.	Lillie Hill.
Emma Timberlake.	Daniel Taylor.
Clarence Hobart.	Bridget Rooney.
Maud Laurison.	Eddie White.
Calvin P. Fellows.	Eva Shaw.
Gertrude Collins.	Addie Morrison.
Emma Foss.	Willard Estey.
Lizzie Hodgkinson.	George Hanchett.
Fred McGowan.	Florence Lane.
W. Morrison.	Nellie McDermott.
Carrie Pendleton.	Walter Nutter.

Frank Rodgers.
Nettie Reagan.
Ada Townsend.
Ida F. Weld.
Kate Rooney.
H. E. Richardson.
George Shepard.
Frank Tyler.

Only two (2) of those who were reported as belonging to class III. last year, and probably astigmatic, have been found to have perfectly good sight now.

They are :—

Hildreth McFarland.
Julia McDonough.

It was thought best this year to place in class three, not only the astigmatic, but all those whose vision was imperfect in either eye; consequently, the following seventy-two (72) names are added to this class. Some of these are new scholars; but many of them were examined last year, and the imperfections only noticed as attendant on their being near-sighted, or far-sighted, or, at the time, suffering from some temporary or incidental disease.

They are :—

Lillie Hill.
W. Lewis.
Frank White.
Willie Tomlinson.
Sumner Higgins.
Bridget Rooney.
Ellis Littlefield.
Frank White.
Albert Soule.
Harry Green.
Jennie Richardson.
Lizzie Neal.
Mary Downey.
James Bain.
James Holmes.
Fannie Preston.
Edna Farnsworth.
Rose Gidney.
Amy Mercer.
Albert Welch.
Mamie Slanner.
Frank Eames.
Jennie Venchenburg.
Ruby Bridgman.
Sarah McAulney.
Flossie Hoogs.
Lulu Malcom.
Annie Kelley.
Mary Riley.
Meona Dunn.
John Curran.
Mabel Hill.
Charles Rahell.
Minnie Clark.
Flossie Davis.
Gertie Lynde.

Frank Bridgman.	Mary Belcher.
Walter Van Slyke.	Frank Cobb.
John McCoy.	Mary Leonard.
Lucy Kennedy.	Minnie Cannon.
Michael Wallace.	Grace Brostrom.
Bessie Kelsey.	Arthur Davis.
Joseph Ryan.	Annie Grant.
Harry Vose.	Robert Bass.
Thomas Cowan.	Willie Tracy.
Sarah Terry.	Elmer Fowler.
Edward Pilman.	Bertha H. Pepperell.
Sarah Wood.	Grace Gidney.
Bessie Long.	Augusta Swanton.
Ritchie Drummond.	Patrick Kelley.
John Subhl.	Daniel Quinn.
Archie McNalley.	Mary Roome.
Katie Butler.	Peter McGowan.
J. Heustis.	Dora Wiggin.

There was one new case of strabismus, — Otto Pierce; and one of injury to the eye, from external violence, since last year,—Eddie Hall.

The proportion of normal and abnormal eyes is much the same as last year, and the percentage of the different classes and different schools is so nearly what it was before, that it is not at all worth while to revise the tables so soon.

I paid to Miss Wilmot, for her services as assistant, three dollars a day for ten days; for one or two partial days' work, which she did, she was good enough to make no charge.

Thanking the committee for their kindness in allowing me to carry on the examinations in a manner satisfactory to myself, and to report on them at my convenience, I remain,

Very respectfully yours,

WILLIAM S. DENNETT.
